

En Vogue (Fashion Show)

#ELIGIBILITY

En Vogue is a solo event, and to participate, each contestant must register by completing the necessary details on the provided google link.

#COMPETITION STRUCTURE

The winners of this event will be determined through three stages, with two taking place on stage and one occurring off stage.

Firstly, we will commence with a ramp walk and poses, concluding with participants describing the motivation behind their chosen attire and providing details about their outfit.

Secondly, following the results of the first round, the remaining participants will proceed to compete in the second round. During this stage, they are required to capture three pictures of themselves within the campus and email them to the provided address. A time allotment of 30 minutes will be given for this segment of the event.

Lastly, there will be a random question-answer round, during which the judges will pose questions on various topics.

#RULES

1. Please arrive one hour before the allotted time to facilitate changing into your outfits.
2. Participants must bring their own props, as nothing will be provided by the organizers.
